Is it the film's complex style, with flashbacks, stylized sets, and bold camera flourishes? Or is it finally the film's insistence that there is no one answer to a complex question - that the word "Rosebud" only offers more questions instead of answers? ## UPCOMING TRIPS

MAY 26 (Wed) THE DROWSY CHAPERONE 12 Noon The New York Times calls it "Ingenious!" Leaving the critics in awe and winning the most Tony Awards in 2006, this highly entertaining, "musical within a comedy" is filled with tons of laughs and side-splitting antics. The hilarity begins when a diehard musical theatre buff drops the needle on his favorite musical comedy album - you guessed it - The Drowsy Chaperone. Suddenly, that very magical musical bursts to life with a colorful cast of characters: the pampered Broadway starlet who wants to give up the biz to pursue her one true love, the somewhat dim yet debonair groom-to-be, the desperate producer trying to spoil the nuptials, an over-the-top Latin lover, a pair of gangsters disguised as pastry chefs and of course, the ever "drowsy" chaperone. Subsidized by Senior Council. Cost: $30 for 55+ Register & pay at the Senior Center. Please register by April 21st. The bus leaves the civic center at 12:00 and the Towers at 12:05. For more information call 247-7659.
